DETAILED ACTION

Application and Claims Status

1. Claims 1-28 are currently pending and are under consideration in this Office Action. It is noted that applicant filed a Supplemental Application Data Sheet on 07/26/2004 to correct the City of Residence for the inventor Yuichi Toriumi, and the Supplemental Application Data Sheet is acknowledged and entered.

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers, (i.e. Japan Application No. 2003-065462, filed March 11, 2003), submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statements (IDS) filed on 07/26/2004 and 01/13/2006 have been reviewed, and the references that have been considered are initialed as recorded in PTO-1449 form(s).

4. The information disclosure statement filed 04/12/2006 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claim 1 is provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 5 of copending Application No. 10/833,996 (US Patent Application Publication US 2005/0001803 A1; Now refers as Morita et al.).

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both the instant claimed device of claim 1 and the claimed device of Morita et al. have similar structural features.

Specifically, the claimed device of Morita et al. comprises a gray-scale bus (refers to instant claimed a gray-scale bus), a capture start timing setting register (refers to instant claimed a capture start timing setting register), a capture instruction signal generation circuit that generates signals set by the capture start timing setting register (refers to instant claimed a shift start signal generation circuit), a first shift register which includes a plurality of flip-flops of claim 5 (refers to instant claimed a shift register), a first data latch (refers to instant claimed a data latch), and a first driver circuit (refers to instant claimed a data line driver circuit).

That is the claimed device of the instant application is generic to the claimed device of copending Application No. 10/833,996 or in other word claim 1 of the instant application is anticipated by claims 1 and 5 of copending Application No. 10/833,996. Accordingly, the examined claims would be obvious over the claims of copending Application No. 10/833,996.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2-28 are allowed.

8. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant claims are allowed for the reason that the cited prior arts does not teach or fairly suggest the structural features of the presently claimed device, i.e. a display driver comprising the combination of "a capture start timing setting register in which is set a period between a changing time of a given capture start timing instruction signal and a starting time of capturing the gray-scale data”, “a shift start signal generation circuit which generates a shift start signal based on a setting state of the capture start timing setting register”, and “a shift clock signal assignment circuit which assigns and outputs each of the $2 \times N$ shift clock signals to one of the first clock signal lines and one of the second clock signal lines based on a setting state of the capture start timing setting register”.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
